Dear Mr. Epperly:

Your letter was forwarded to us by the Governor's office on December 21, 1989. A review of our records indicates that we do have the specific pages which you have requested. Enclosed are copy order forms for both requests.

There may be additional documents related to Georgia's position on the ratification of the 14th Amendment. Regrettably, departmental policies prohibit us from performing the intensive research which would be required to locate such specific records. Therefore, we have included a list of professional researchers who will perform intensive research for a fee.

Please accept our best wishes for success with your study.

Sincerely,

Alice James

Dear Mr. Epperly:

Please excuse us for having sent you the wrong copies! Enclosed please find the correct copies. You may find these appear discolored but actually these copies are better (clearer) than the original records which have darkened to a medium brown!

Thank you for being so patient with us and please do not hesitate to write again if we may be of further assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Alice James

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

"The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be 'used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.' If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of 'fair use,' that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve a violation of copyright law.
