Dear Mr. Epperly:

Your inquiry concerning North Carolina's rejection of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution was recently referred to me from the office of Governor James G. Martin. Enclosed you will find xeroxed copies of the materials you requested from the House and Senate Journals of 1866-1867. Also enclosed for your information are the names of all legislators who served in that session of the General Assembly, taken from John L. Cheney's North Carolina Government, 1585-1979: A Narrative and Statistical History (1981). I hope that this information will prove useful.

Wishing you much success with your research project, I am

Sincerely yours,
