Dear Gordon:

I have read and re-read your proposed Resolution and am not interested in introducing it for a number of reasons.

My primary problem is the cost of any such investigation. I doubt we could get the appropriation approved given our economic crisis this year.

I also don't understand the purpose. What are the realistic chances of success in overturning Constitutional Amendments and do we want to actually do that?

Your purpose is too complex for my non-legal mind. Perhaps you may find someone else who better understands or is prepared to advocate for this concept.

I regret I must decline.

Respectfully,

Bill Hudson
